Congratulations to Our 2017 First Communion Class!

SATURDAY, MAY 13 was a special and sacred day for 56 boys and girls from our parish school and Religious Education program. First Communion Day is also filled with family and friends and lots of picture taking with the children as a group and individually. Bishop Paul Sanchez thanks Anne Zuschlag, Dennis Portelli, Martha Liubicich, and the Religious Ed teachers—Ronnie McCarthy, Marie Smith, Danijela Stipanov, Grace Wellbrock—who prepared the children for this milestone.

We're so proud of the children. Many blessings to them all!

Thomas Jorge to Be Ordained

by Deacon Greg Kandra

It is with great joy that I share with you the news that our very own Thomas Jorge, after five years of study and prayer and discernment, will be ordained to Holy Orders on Saturday, May 27, 2017, at the Co-cathedral of St. Joseph in Brooklyn. Tom will become a permanent deacon for the Diocese of Brooklyn/Queens, almost 10 years to the day after I was ordained to that order and began to serve this parish.

Thomas Jorge with Deacon Greg

I take some personal pride in this news.

Tom asked me to be his mentor during formation, and it has been my privilege to accompany him and his wonderful wife Olga as they have journeyed forward toward this moment. Tom will be a blessing to the diocese, and I know that Olga's prayerful love and support will sustain him—along with the prayers of so many who love them both.

Tom is a homegrown vocation. He grew up in Forest Hills, attended OLQM school, and spent most of his life here in the parish. In so many ways, this church and these pews and the priests who have ministered here have helped to form him in his faith.

If you can, please join with Tom on Sunday, May 28 at the 1 p.m. Mass, for his Mass of Thanksgiving as he embarks on this great adventure. There, for the first time, he will have the incomparable privilege of proclaiming the Gospel, preaching the homily, serving at the altar and elevating in his hands the chalice containing the Precious Blood of Christ. A great ministry of service will begin.

If you can't be there, in your charity and generosity, please remember Tom and Olga in your prayers—and offer prayers of thanksgiving, too, for this great gift of another vocation to serve our church. Ad multos annos!

EDITOR'S NOTE: You can find a special "Prayer for the Ordained," written by Deacon Greg, near the church doors. Please take one and pledge to pray for Thomas Jorge and for vocations this coming week.

In Memory of a Gentle, Joyful Shepherd

The Most Reverend Thomas V. Daily

(1927-2017)

The Bishop Emeritus of Brooklyn died early May 15 at the Bishop Mugavero Residence at the Immaculate Conception Center, Douglaston. He was the head of our diocese from 1990 until his retirement in 2003. Bishop Daily was 89.

A Massachusetts native, he was ordained a priest by the Archdiocese of Boston in 1952, performed missionary work in Peru, and served for many years at St. Ann's Church in the Boston suburb of Quincy before being named an auxiliary bishop in 1975. In 1984, he was appointed the first bishop of the Diocese of Palm Beach, Florida. He was installed as the sixth bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn in 1990 and served during a time of racial tension and financial hardship. With the Knights of Columbus, he and the Brooklyn Diocese helped to bring Pope John Paul II to Queens to celebrate Mass during the pope's October 1995 U.S. visit.

We remember in thanksgiving the varied and fruitful ministry of Bishop Thomas Vose Daily. Please pray for the repose of his soul and for the consolation of his family and friends. Condolences may be sent to his nephew, Reverend Vincent Daily, at Saint Gregory Rectory, 2223 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester, MA 02124.

May he rest in the peace of Christ, the Risen Lord.

Weekly Collections: The collection figures for Sunday, May 14 were not available in time for this bulletin's closing. They will appear next week.
