LAUDATO SI' EXPLAINED: September 1 was World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, which gave us the opportunity to examine some of the Holy Father's thoughts from his Encyclical. Today's bulletin insert is an overview of the Encyclical's key points. A video from Catholic Relief Services (CRS) and the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) is also available on our website. It is a simple explanation of caring for the natural world and, at three minutes, is accessible to everyone.—BISHOP PAUL SANCHEZ

The loose money deposited in the second collection on Sunday, September 27, will be used to help defray the costs associated with the 2015 Visit of Pope Francis to the United States. You may also use your own white envelope to donate for this purpose and deposit that envelope in the collection on that day. Thank you for your collaboration. Let us pray that Pope Francis travels safely and brings many blessings to our country.

Ongoing Church Roof Repair

Funds from the parish capital campaign are turning the much-needed repair of the church roof into reality. Repair costs are estimated to be about $350,000 to restore the upper and lower roofs. Northern Metalworks, our contractor, has been documenting the project and you can see the progress in pictures at our website at www.ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/capital-campaign. We thank those supporting the capital campaign and everyone for your patience. The importance of this project is to stop leaks and restore this important architectural feature of our church.

Roof materials include slate, tile, copper; work includes removal/replacement of roofing membranes, copper flashing, damaged slates, storm-damaged gutters, and restoring discolored features

Join them at their monthly meeting this Wednesday, September 23 at 7 p.m. (special day and time) in the rectory basement to discuss plans for a potluck party Saturday, October 24 and a Queens Restaurant Week group dinner (date and location TBA) as well as other fall activities. CNEWA: Answering the Question—
“What Can We Do?”

More than a year after ISIS swept through northern Iraq, displacing tens of thousands of Christians, many around the world are asking, “What can we do?” One powerful answer is CNEWA—Catholic Near East Welfare Association—an agency of the Holy See. CNEWA has been a lifeline for the poor throughout the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe for more than 85 years, working for, through and with the Eastern Catholic churches.

CNEWA works to build up the church, affirm human dignity, alleviate poverty, encourage dialogue—and inspire hope. It has deep roots in the region and trusted field workers who are in constant contact with church leaders and institutions.

Long after others have left troubled corners of the world, CNEWA is still there, accompanying those most in need—which is especially true now, in northern Iraq, where CNEWA is helping build homes, find jobs, secure medical care and create schools for those who have found their lives upended. It is also providing something intangible and invaluable: spiritual support and hope.

You can visit CNEWA’s website to learn more: www.cnewa.org. Or give a call to their offices in New York to find out how you can help: 1-800-442-6392.
