Stewardship Thoughts

The path to becoming a generous steward of the Church is asking who Jesus is in my own life. He is Savior, teacher, friend, Lord. We should then move from asking to honoring Jesus by following in His footsteps—taking time to build our relationship with Him, using our unique gifts to serve others in His name, sharing our bountiful blessings from God generously. Joyfully recall what Jesus has done for you. Don't be shy in expressing your thankfulness.

Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations and sufferings, particularly (make your request here), and that I may praise God with you and all the saints forever. I promise, O Blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor granted me by God and to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

GUEST SPEAKER: October 19

Father Sean M. Suckiel, Vocations Director for Brooklyn/Queens Diocese

Fr. Sean Suckiel encourages choosing a life of vocation. He'll be guest speaker on October 19.

Father Suckiel is a native of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Parish in Ridgewood, Queens. He attended the diocesan high school seminary at Cathedral Prep in Elmhurst, the college seminary residence program and St John's University, and the five-year program at the Major Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. He was ordained a transitional deacon in 2011. His formation included a pastoral service year at Our Lady of Mount Carmel (OLMC) in Astoria. He was ordained a priest in 2012 at St James Cathedral in Brooklyn.

He last visited our parish during Easter season 2016, joining us on Palm Sunday and on Good Friday to hear confessions. We would be grateful if you would help us welcome him back.

Come hear what he has to say when he is our guest speaker this Thursday during our prayer night for vocations. He's enthusiastic about his own calling and works with young priests to inspire vocations. He's active on social media too, where you can follow him:
