Heartfelt Thanks

Bishop Sanchez, Father Passenant, Father Antonín, Father Cunningham, Deacon Greg and Deacon Bill extend thanks to all of you who were involved in so many different ways with our 2015 celebration of Holy Week and Easter. A special thank you goes to our Altar Servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Choir members, Ushers, our sacristan and staff. Your commitment and work made our Easter celebration of the Risen Christ so real and alive. Finally, we thank all parishioners who attended services and supported us so generously.

EASTER 2015: A Note of Welcome and Thanks!

by Deacon Bill McNamara, Director of Religious Education

Our Elect and Candidates in our RCIA program traveled a long journey preparing to become fully initiated members of the Catholic Church. At the Easter Vigil, Bishop Sanchez and the people of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish joyfully welcomed our 10 candidates to be baptized: Catherine Becker, Anjali and Askay Barnabas, Karin Chen, Ysatis Llano, Beena Iype, Ivonne Luciano, Vinod Ochani, Nicholas Tinnesz and David Rosario. We also welcomed Christopher Evans who made a profession of faith to join us from another Christian Faith tradition.

Our community was privileged to have another 7 members of our faith community receive sacraments of initiation: Caroline Bocchinfuso, Michela Leandri, Augusto Malaret, Michelle Martucci, Edwin Ochoa, Alexander Pena and Maya Saraya.

It has been an honor and a blessing for our entire RCIA team—along with Bishop Sanchez, Father Passenant, Father Antonín, Father Cunningham and Deacon Greg—to be part of their journey of faith over this past year.

Parish Expo Starts Next Weekend

Help keep volunteerism alive in our worship community

by David and Grace Lee, Stewardship Committee

Happy Easter to the stewards of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs! It is a time of joy and of personal renewal in the Lord. In the weeks following Easter, OLQM is focusing on a parish evangelization campaign about stewardship as a way of life. Our theme is “Thanking God Through Our Service.” The parish is a dynamic place to practice our commitment to love and serve God. We are blessed with many ministries and outreach opportunities for you to learn about and take part in. Active participation and volunteer work in parish ministries is key to keeping our church vibrant. After Sunday Masses on the weekends of April 18/19, 25/26 and May 2/3, we will have three mini-expos at the back of the church where active parish members will be on hand, ready to answer questions and welcome anyone who would like to get involved.

(Lenten) Mission Accomplished

Over four days and evenings last month, Fr. Damian Halligan and colleagues Jean Lynch and Pat McDonough from the Jesuit Collaborative prompted us to “journey toward Jesus.” Day 1’s contemplation was the story of Zacchaeus climbing the tree to see Jesus and developing faith. Day 2 reflected on Bartimaeus and healing through faith. Day 3 was the mystery of the Annunciation and Mary’s response, and on Day 4 the gift of reconciliation was the theme. We thank the members of the Jesuit Collaborative for visiting our parish and those parishioners who gathered each day.

Prayerful Conversation, Renewal and Growth during the Lenten Mission

by Rosalind Chan

Return to me with your whole heart (Joel 2:12 NAB). Have you heard God’s invitation to grow closer with Him? What’s the next step on our journey home? These are questions I asked myself this recent Lenten season, and I found that the Parish Lenten Mission gave me that time to renew my relationship with Him. St. Ignatius of Loyola taught a form of reflective prayer that invited me to use my mind and imagination to engage in prayerful conversation with God and to recognize his presence in my daily life. While I had only planned on attending the first night of the Mission to see what it was all about, I soon found myself being drawn back. I’m glad I returned night after night. Tapping into all of my senses during prayer allowed me to freely fall into His love and mercy. Reflection and understanding came easier. Faith and spirituality soon grew stronger. This season of grace touched me in more ways than I can explain, and I fully attribute it to the Jesuit way of prayer. I have returned ... whole-heartedly.

BLOOD DRIVE Sunday, April 19
9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
McLaughlin Hall

I gave my blood...
Christ gave His.
I gave a pint...
He gave all.
The needle is small and sharp....
The nails were large and dull.
The table soft, relaxing...
The cross rough, painful
The nurses kind and gentle...
The soldiers cruel and mean.
The crowd applauds my sacrifice...
“They that passed by reviled Him.”
Mine is O-Positive...
His for positively all.
Mine, at best will prolong a life for awhile...
His, without doubt, saved all...forever!
~Written by Bill Goff
