A View from the Pew

by Deacon Greg Kandra

Five Wounds

“That looks very medieval,” someone said to me. He was looking at my lapel, where I was wearing a pin of the Jerusalem Cross—actually, five crosses which, symbolically, represent the five wounds of Jesus Christ.

I admit, it does look like something that might be worn by a knight on a crusade. And maybe, at times, I do feel like I’m crusading for something—everything from good grammar to the salvation of souls—but, for me, the Jerusalem Cross has a deeper, more personal reference. When I wear that cross, it serves to remind me of the time my wife and I had the good fortune of making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Rome, and we touched the rock that held the cross. It was a deeply moving, deeply humbling journey. It reminds me, and others, of my connection to Christ’s suffering and death.

This Easter Sunday, we celebrate a resurrection, and our own redemption—salvation that comes our way because of the empty tomb and the glorified savior. It is the greatest feast of our calendar and a source of unending wonder and joy. It’s astonishing to think that what began on Easter has spread around the globe, multiple times, and in every language imaginable.

But let’s never forget: It’s rooted in the rock that I touched in Jerusalem. It is tethered to a cross that held a battered body, and the blood that stained the ground from five deep wounds. One man’s pain has opened to us the gates of Paradise. See that when you see the Jerusalem Cross—and you’ll see something more than “medieval.” You just might see something miraculous. Happy Easter!

FROM THE PASTOR

At long last, like the disciples running toward the empty tomb, we find ourselves at Easter, celebrating a miracle.

All of the various readings we will hear during this feast point to one inescapable truth: He Is Risen! And He comes to us in a spirit of consolation and hope.

During the Easter Vigil, in Matthew's Gospel, Christ tells the women "Do not be afraid," and reassures them He will rejoin them in Galilee. In John's Gospel, there is the stark reality of an empty tomb and rolled burial cloths, and the gradual understanding that something phenomenal has happened.

Each of these accounts gives us reason to rejoice and reminds us that the great miracle of Easter continues within each of us, as we seek to live out its meaning, as people of the Resurrection. Have a blessed and joyful Easter!

Easter Greetings

On behalf of Fathers Passenant and Antonín and the entire staff of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, please accept my sincere prayer that this Easter season will bring many blessings to you and your loved ones. The Easter celebration is the high point of the Church year. In these holy days, we commemorate the victory of Christ over sin and death and the glory of His Resurrection. We are all pilgrims on the journey of faith and we are also partial sharers in the Easter victory of Christ. This is the mystery that we celebrate and in which we rejoice at this time.

May the Risen Christ fill our hearts with renewed faith and a willingness to witness to God's Presence in today's world!

—Bishop Paul R. Sanchez
