OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area.

Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

The Tracker

Order anything online lately? If you are really curious and have too much time on your hands, you can track your packages, step by step, city by city, truck by truck, as they work their way from warehouse to airport to doorman to you.

This has become my latest obsession. Say I order something from L. L. Bean. They'll give me a link and a number, and I can then accompany my package on its journey. I can see where it is, when it was scanned, when it was sent to a regional shipping center. I can follow it on its happy way, imagining the adventures my wool socks must be having as they land at last in Queens

Clearly, I'm overdue for a vacation. But, to my point. We have become trackers, many of us. And not just with packages. On some airlines, when you fly, you can click on a map at your seat and see where the plane is and follow the route. They'll even tell you your altitude and flying time. Sometimes, even, the temperature outside your window. We are all, suddenly, co-pilots without a license.

I wonder if it is this way with God. Does He follow us the way I follow my UPS package? Does He ponder the journey we take, the routes we map out, the choices we make? Does He share the sense of adventure as we embark into the unknown? I think so. I hope so. I feel better believing so. I trust and pray that He is monitoring my trip through life the same way I might monitor my airline trip to Orlando. I have faith that He cares about how I'm traveling, and that He is watching my altitude (and, perhaps, my attitude). Maybe He is keeping an eye out for unexpected changes in the wind. I have faith that God really is my co-pilot—or, at the very least, that He is following the map and helping me steer clear of storms.

We need all the help we can get because ultimately—though we may have a general sense of direction—we are all travelers journeying to places unknown. We are guided by unseen hands, through unexpected portals and weigh stations.

In so many ways, our lives are not really ours. We make choices, of course, and pick paths and diversions and shortcuts. But ultimately, I think, life is about surrender—giving ourselves over to His will and His own method of delivery and deliverance.

There is a breathtaking freedom in that. As the 12-step programs put it: Let go, and let God. He is undoubtedly tracking us—eagerly watching our progress until we arrive, at last, home.

Pledge Your Support to the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal

Your support of the Appeal makes all the difference in different ways. Donations to the Appeal help to accomplish the good works of Catholic Charities, Faith Formation, Vocations, the Migration Office, Care of Retired Priests, Chaplaincies and Catholic Education throughout our Diocese. The Church extends far beyond the walls of our own local parish, but once we make our goal, Our Lady Queen of Martyrs will also receive 100% of additional funds raised over the goal, for our own parish needs.

If you have not done so, please take an Appeal envelope from the church and make a pledge today, payable over the remainder of 2014. Thank you.
