The one-year commemoration of Msgr. Joseph Funaro's passing coincides with the Vigil Mass of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. On this feast we celebrate Mary's assumption into heaven and our participation in the salvation won by the blood of her son, Jesus. Let us remember and pray for the repose of the soul of Msgr. Funaro on this feast, with the hope of the promise of eternal life, as fulfilled in Mary.

Note: Because of the 7 p.m. Vigil Mass for the Assumption, there will be no afternoon Adoration on August 14. Benediction will take place after the 12:05 p.m. Mass.

Praying the St. John Vianney Novena
Fr. Jason Espinal

Fr. Espinal, who was ordained last month, celebrates today's 11:30 a.m. Mass and leads us in the eighth day of the novena. He will be available after Mass to offer First Blessings to those attending.

Fr. Espinal is currently assigned to Our Lady of Angels Parish in Brooklyn.

He is a native of Williamsburg and the son of immigrants from the Dominican Republic. His attended Transfiguration Church and the parish school and participated in the parish youth group, which was connected to the Jornadas de Vida Cristiana Movement. He later attended Bishop Loughlin MHS, Fort Greene; Manhattan's Murry Bergtraum HS for Business Careers; and the Borough of Manhattan Community College. He entered Cathedral Seminary Residence, Douglaston, and studied at St. John's University, earning his bachelor's degree in philosophy with a minor in theology. He attended the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception, Huntington, L.I. and St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, where he attained a master's of divinity in theology. He spent his diaconate year at the Basilica of Regina Pacis, Bensonhurst.

We are pleased to have him say Mass at our parish this Sunday as we pray for the intercession of St. John Vianney to bless our diocese with more good parish priests.

I GAVE MY BLOOD ...

Christ gave His.
I gave a pint ...
He gave all.
The needle is small and sharp ...
The nails were large and dull.
The table soft, relaxing ...
The cross rough, painful.
The nurse's kind and gentle...
The soldiers cruel and mean.
The crowd applauds my sacrifice ...
"They that passed by reviled Him."
Mine is O-Positive ...
His for positively all.
Mine, at best will prolong a life for awhile ...
His, without doubt, saved all ... forever!

A Word From Bishop Sanchez
On Homelessness in New York City

Recently I was invited to participate in a conference call, initiated by the city, concerning homelessness. Our diocesan communications office has issued a press release of my remarks on this topic (presented below). Thank you for your prayers and concern for those who have less than we do.

In view of the needs of the homeless in our city, we must recognize those less fortunate in our midst and encourage community leaders to engage in a process that will provide more affordable housing with proper supports for families.

Currently, there are 54,000 individuals living daily in 250 shelters across the five boroughs. Nearly half—23,000—are children. Of the total, one-third of those individuals work full-time, but lack sufficient income for housing independence.

The city is providing, by law, emergency homeless shelters for these individuals as a temporary solution to an immediate crisis. This crisis gives us an opportunity to advocate for more affordable housing for families and for additional government initiatives that prevent homelessness through rent subsidies.

I invite all of us, as Catholics who embrace the virtue of compassion, to pray for these homeless individuals and families and for those who work to create affordable housing units. The city is suggesting that we write our community boards and our local newspapers asking for compassion for those who have been displaced.

To locate your local community board, go to the NYC community affairs unit—nyc.gov/cau.
