OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area.

Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

“Gifts from Bethlehem”

~ in the church vestibule today ~

Olivewood handicrafts are an indigenous form of art in the Holy Land. The holy crafts trade faces hardship, however, and so does the Christian community living there. Today, Christians are now less than 1.5% of the total population. Olivewood gift items, handmade by Christian friends who live in the Holy Land, are on display and available for purchase after Mass today. Sales of these items will help to preserve the Christian presence and culture there. These items will make fine holiday gifts with special significance. Thank you for visiting them today.

Special All Souls Remembrances During the Month of November

by Dennis Francis Portelli, OLQM Pastoral Care Director

In the Apostles Creed we pray: “I believe in the communion of saints.” The word communion means a “sharing” and also “communication.” Both meanings are part of the communion of saints.

The word saints in the Creed does not just mean the saints in heaven. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us, it “includes people who have died, but have gone to purgatory, and ... the people who are still alive.” It includes us! We are trying to become saints and we are already part of the communion of saints.

The Church also has some terms that identify the three different groups of souls who are part of the communion of saints. We call those who are already in heaven the Church triumphant. Those who are waiting in purgatory are called the Church suffering, and we who are still alive on earth are called the Church militant.

At Our Lady Queen of Martyrs throughout the year—and especially in November—we remember the souls of all our faithfully departed brothers and sisters whose funerals were celebrated here. As is our tradition we will remember those we buried at our parish during the last five years through a reading of their names, in alphabetical order, at Masses starting on November 2.

Fox Funeral Home Memorial Mass: Fox has also arranged to have a special Mass celebrated here at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church on Saturday, November 5 at 10:30 a.m. for the specific intentions of those who have passed on this last year. We hope you will attend this spiritually uplifting Mass. During this Mass we will invite you to light a candle in their memory. Following is a list of their names:

MEMORIAL CANDLES AT THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS ALTAR

Active members of our community through their annual almsgiving can remember their loved ones in a individual way with a memorial candle at the Sacred Heart of Jesus altar. If you are interested in a memorial candle, contact Dennis Portelli, OLQM director of Pastoral Care, 718-268-6251; he will be pleased to assist you.

Bereavement Support Group will meet from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the rectory on these first and third Mondays: November 7 & 21; December 5 & 19. All meetings facilitated by Commissioned Lay Leader Yorke Mizelle. Call the rectory if attending or email ymizelle@nyc.rr.com.

RCIA @ OLQM welcomes adults who want to become baptized Catholics and adult Catholic who need to complete their sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Classes are Thursdays. Contact our RCIA department: 718-263-0907 or olqmrcia@yahoo.com.

Volunteers Recognized for Their Dedication Bishop Sanchez hosted a special luncheon in McLaughlin Hall on October 16 to recognize the dozens of men and women, new and long-time volunteers, who help OLQM Parish fulfill our mission. It was a fun afternoon with a DJ spinning music, dancing, music trivia and door prizes of fine spirits and liquors. A heartfelt thank you to our Stewardship Committee and all our volunteers (those attending and those who could not attend this year). You are indeed the heart of the parish.
