Prayers for the Faithful Departed

November is the month when we remember those who have gone before us in faith. At this time, we pray for our own beloved family members who have died and remember those who have no one to pray for them.

November is also a time to visit the graves of our loved ones and pray for them at the site of their resting place. The Catholic Cemeteries office encourages each of us to pre-plan our own funeral, and the office can assist us in choosing a grave site or crypt where we would like to be buried. You can contact the Catholic Cemeteries by calling 718-894-4888 or by going to www.ccbklyn.org.

November is also a time to remember that the cremains of our loved ones deserve a final resting place. The United States Bishops offer the following advice:

The cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the human body from which they come. This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried and the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.

Let eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace; may they and all the faithful departed, rest in peace. Amen.

Further information on Catholic Teaching on Cremation can be found in the brochure available in the church.

Special All Souls Remembrances

by Dennis Francis Portelli, OLM Pastoral Care Administrator

In the Apostles Creed we pray: "We believe in the communion of saints." The word communion implies sharing and also communication. Both meanings are part of the communion of saints.

The word saints in the Creed doesn't just mean the saints in heaven. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us, it includes people who have died, but have gone to purgatory and ... the people who are still alive. It includes us! We are trying to become saints and we are already part of the communion of saints.

The Church has other terms that identify the three different groups of souls who are part of the communion of saints. Those who are already in heaven are the Church triumphant. Those waiting in purgatory are called the Church suffering, and those of us who are still alive on earth are called the Church militant.

At Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, in our special way during the year, and especially in November, we remember the souls of our faithfully departed brothers and sisters whose funerals were celebrated in our parish, and we will be remembering our dearly departed brothers and sisters who we buried here during the last five years through a reading of their names, in alphabetical order, at Masses starting November 2.

Active members of our community, through their annual almsgiving, have remembered the souls of their loved ones in an individual way by memorializing candles at the Sacred Heart of Jesus altar.

If you are interested in remembering your loved ones in this individual way, please contact OLM Pastoral Care by calling 718-261-6251.
