OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area.

Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

Brand-New Monday Evening Bible Series Starts this week, November 10

Four Monday Talks on Dante's Divine Comedy starting Monday, November 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the rectory's main meeting room (lower level).

Program Leader: Dr. Kathleen Marks, Associate Professor of English at St. John's University. Kathleen is a lector here in the parish and lives in Queens with her husband and daughter, who attends OLQM School. She is the author of several works on classical and modern works of literature. These study sessions are free and open to anyone interested in learning about biblical and classical tradition in literature.

Engage your intellect! Adult Bible Studies are always Mondays and always informative.

Use the glass door on 72nd Road side of the rectory.

NEW!

Bishop Sanchez Honored at Local Luncheon

Our pastor, the Most Rev. Paul R. Sanchez, was one of three honorees at the Annual Luncheon for Our Lady of the Skies Chapel, held at Russo's on the Bay on October 30. The chapel is located at Terminal 4, JFK. The guild also serves at both New York airports. It ministers to airport employees and passengers and provides a place of " orship and emergency first-aid for stranded passengers. More than 400 friends and workers of the airport community attended to support the chapel's primary annual fundraiser. Other honorees were Margaret Eaton of Lufthansa Airlines and Thomas L. Bosco of the Port Authority of NY/NJ. To learn more about Our Lady of the Skies, visit their website: www.jfkchapel.org.

Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio was on hand to congratulate Bishop Sanchez. (Below): Joining Bishop Sanchez for the luncheon were Father Passenant and parish members.

Job Search & Networking Support Group Meeting

Wednesday, November 12 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the rectory's lower level meeting room (enter through the glass door on 72nd Rd). A guest speaker from the New York City Senior Employment Program (part of the Dept. for the Aging) will discuss the city's efforts to help unemployed workers over 55 get back into the workforce. RSVP required. Contact olqmjobsearch@gmail.com.

Single Adults Group November Meeting

Saturday, November 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the rectory basement (main meeting room). We will discuss holiday events and ways to express gratitude. There is still time to join our table at the Parish Gala on November 17, but you must submit your form ASAP and indicate you would like to sit with us. Use the form in today's bulletin or call the Single Adults hotline at 718-361-3201.

Thanksgiving Turkey and Ham Drop, Saturday, November 15—10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at The Little Sisters Queen of Peace Residence (110-30 221st Street, Queens Village). Sisters and volunteers will greet you at your car to accept donations of turkeys and hams for future meals for the elderly residents. Call, email or visit online for more information: 718-464-1800; qpdevelopment@littlesistersofthepoor.org; www.littlesistersofthepoorqueens.org.

Prayers for the Faithful Departed

November is the month when we remember those who have gone before us in faith. At this time, we pray for our own beloved family members who have died and remember those who have no one to pray for them.

November is also a time to visit the graves of our loved ones and pray for them at the site of their resting place. The Catholic Cemeteries office encourages each of us to pre-plan our own funeral, and the office can assist us in choosing a grave site or crypt where we would like to be buried. You can contact the Catholic Cemeteries by calling 718-894-4888 or by going to www.ccbklyn.org.

November is also a time to remember that the remains of our loved ones deserve a final resting place. The United States Bishops offer the following advice:

The cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the human body from which they come. This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried and the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires.

Let eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace; may they and all the faithful departed, rest in peace. Amen.

Further information on Catholic Teaching on Cremation can be found in the brochure available in the church.

Best Wishes to Our Tireless Volunteers

Manny and Yanick Lima have served the parish for years. Many of you know Manny as our long-time bulletin editor who introduced many innovative ideas for this publication. He was on the Pastoral Council at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs for 14 years. As Manny and Yanick prepare to embark on a new life in Colorado, we ask everyone to please hold them in your prayers.

Tom O'Brien has recently resigned from the finance council and the position of parish trustee. The scope of his new job does not afford him the time to do the work he would like to do here at OLQM. We are grateful for the assistance which Tom has given to our parish from the time he "as asked to ser$e on the parish finance council. He has assured us that he is available for consultation and direction on development issues should they arise.

'Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant'

Mary Newman, due to health reasons, permanently returned to Ireland to be near her family. As we go to press with this bulletin edition, we have just learned that she entered into eternal glory on Monday evening, November 3.

We are planning a Memorial Mass to be offered for the repose of her soul on Friday morning, November 7, at 10 a.m. It would take over 400,000 words to express our gratitude to equal the extraordinary effort she put into her fundraising for the parish. May God grant her eternal rest, until we meet again.
