OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area.

Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

Advent: A Season of Hope

Human beings cannot live without hope. Unlike the animals, we are blessed—or cursed—with the ability to think about the future and to fear our actions in shaping it. So essential is this to human life that human beings cannot live without hope, without something to live for, without something to look forward to. To be without hope, to have nothing to live for, is to surrender to death in despair. But we can find all sorts of things to live for and we can hope for almost anything: for some measure of success or security or the realization of a more or less modest ambition; for our children, that they might be saved from our mistakes and suffering and find a better life than we have known; for a better world, throwing ourselves into politics or medicine or technology so that future generations might be better off.

But one of the reasons we read the Old Testament during Advent is to learn what to hope for.

The people of the Old Testament had the courage to hope for big things: that the desert would be turned into fertile land;

Message from Bishop Paul R. Sanchez

A Word about the National Meeting of Catholic Bishops

I spent four days recently at the national meeting of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). The meeting is always an enriching experience where I learn a great deal about the Catholic Church throughout our country as well as have the opportunity to meet Bishops who minister in a wide variety of communities throughout our beloved country.

A highlight of the USCCB conference took place on Tuesday, November 15, when almost 200 Bishops celebrated Mass at St. Peter Claver Church in West Baltimore with members of that parish and the conference staff. A beautiful Gospel choir enriched the liturgy with prayerful songs of praise. St. Peter's is a historic Church in the center of a black community that has experienced rising violence in recent months. As Bishops, we joined our prayers with the prayers of so many others who seek peace and reconciliation and unity between peoples of all races, nations and colors. May our loving God hear our prayers!

The day before, Msgr. James Vlaun (pictured, center) joined Bishop Raymond Chappetto (right) and me at one of the opening-day sessions. Msgr. Vlaun, as Director of Telecare of the Diocese of Rockville Center, was reporting on the events. The Catholic communications office in Brooklyn and Queens, equivalent to the one Msgr. Vlaun heads up, is Net TV. I invite you to explore the programs offered by Net TV by visiting netny.tv. Their nightly news program "Currents" is broadcast at 7:30 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. and rebroadcast the next morning at 6:30 a.m. on Channel 97 on Time Warner Cable/Spectrum.

For further news about the meeting of the United States Bishops, visit catholicnews.com.

Deanery Corner

Faith & Film at Resurrection Ascension

Wednesday, November 30 at 7 p.m. Father Feely Hall, 85-18 61st Rd, Rego Park. Hitchcock's The Wrong Man (1956) follows the true story of a man who is wrongly implicated in a crime and, ultimately, finds deliverance. Film length: 110 minutes. Msgr. Steven Aguggia, pastor of St. Margaret Parish, will lead a discussion on the film's themes and reflections at the start of the Advent season.

Simbang Gabi at Church of the Ascension

December 15-23 at 7 p.m. 86-13 55th Ave., Elmhurst. Novena of Masses, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, in preparation for the birth of Christ, in the Filipino tradition.

Bereavement Support Through the Holidays

Anyone who has recently lost a loved one can join our support group, where we HELP, CARE and LISTEN to one another and work together through grief. Next meeting dates are Mondays December 5 & 19; January 9 & 23 from 7-9 p.m. in the rectory. Facilitated by Commissioned Lay Leader Yorke Mizelle. Call ahead to our church rectory if attending or, for more information, email ymizelle@nyc.rr.com.

Advent: A Season of Hope cont'd from p. 3

that the scattered and divided people would eventually be gathered again; that the blind would see, the deaf hear, the lame walk; that not only their own people, but all the peoples of the earth would be united in the blessings of everlasting peace.

We hope for the same things as the Old Testament people for their hopes [for lasting peace and tranquil lives] are not yet realized. But we differ from them in two ways. First, the coming of Jesus in history, as a partial fulfillment of God's promises, immeasurably confirms and strengthens our hope. Second, we differ from the Old Testament people because Jesus has revealed to us that God is not afar off, but is already in our midst. Hence, the importance in the Advent liturgies of John the Baptist and of Mary: because they recognized the new situation, they serve as models for the Church in discerning the presence of our Savior in the world.
