The Easter Triduum

We invite you to bring family members and friends with you to Church this Holy Week as we prepare for the joyous celebration of the resurrection. Triduum (Latin for “three days”) represents the most sacred time in the Church year. It begins on the evening of Holy Thursday and ends on the evening of Easter Sunday, the day of the Lord’s Resurrection.

Holy Thursday celebrates the Mass of the Last Supper, recalling Jesus’ final meal with his disciples, when Jesus instituted the Eucharist for the Church and washed his disciples’ feet (Jn 13:1-15) as a sign of the service we are called to live. Holy Thursday Mass ends in silence and time spent in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

On Good Friday we proclaim the Lord’s Passion (Jn 18:1-19:42), crucifixion, and death. Good Friday is the only day of the year when the Catholic Church does not celebrate Mass. It is a day of fasting and abstinence and we meditate on the Stations of the Cross and the Seven Last Words of Christ.

Holy Saturday is the Great Easter Vigil, the high point of the Triduum, when we reenact the passage from death to life. On this night we light the Easter (Paschal) candle, sing the Easter proclamation, recount the story of our salvation, renew our baptismal vows, and celebrate the Eucharist.

— This Monday of Holy Week — Experience God’s Mercy in the Confessional

Churches throughout New York City will be open extended hours for Lenten confessions this Monday, April 15. Our parish priests will be available to hear your confession in the morning (11:30 a.m.), afternoon (3:30–5 p.m.) and evening (7:30–8:30 p.m.).

During Holy Week, the next opportunities for confession at our church will be on Tuesday, April 16 and Wednesday, April 17 at 11:30 a.m. and on Good Friday following the 7:30 p.m. “Seven Last Words of Christ” liturgy.

GOOD FRIDAY Stations of the Cross at 1 p.m.

Good Friday Liturgies with Veneration and Communion at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Mary’s Way of the Cross is the Passion as told through the eyes of Christ’s mother and it is the customary devotion said here at this church dedicated to the Queen of Martyrs. It is a very moving experience. Please join us for Good Friday Stations and our afternoon and evening Liturgies of Good Friday.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Each year the Holy Father invites Catholics to support fellow Christians and sacred shrines in the Holy Land.

God bless you for your generosity.

FRANCISCANS OF THE HOLY LAND

1400 Quincy Street NE,
Washington, D.C. 20017
www.myfranciscan.com | 202-526-6800

About the Good Friday Collection

During Holy Week, the Gospel readings come to life in a special way as we gather to celebrate the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. The readings remind of our special connection to the land where this story unfolded.

The annual Pontifical Good Friday Collection is requested by Pope Francis. It continues a longstanding commitment to helping Christians in the Holy Land. In the Acts of the Apostles, we read that even St. Paul urged his missionary Churches not to forget the needs of the Church in Jerusalem.

The 29 parishes in the Holy Land lead worship, offer Christian formation and education, and provide housing and food to the poor. Those serving there need our help. A donation to the Holy Father’s annual appeal is a direct way to express solidarity and make a difference in the lives of those caught up in war, violence, and instability in this region.

Please be as generous as you are able when called on to support this special collection this week.
