OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area.

Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful.

In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

From the Diocese

Annual Mass of Hope and Healing Wednesday, April 25 at 7 p.m.

St. Nicholas of Tolentine Parish (150-75
Goethals Ave., Jamaica)

Main celebrant: Bishop DiMarzio

All are invited to join this Mass and to pray for healing for victims and all those impacted by childhood sexual abuse.

Meet Us
May 5-6
Weekend in the Church
Vestibule

Will you join us in our mission as a Catholic community of faith and service?

On the weekend of May 5-6, we invite you to stop by the volunteer table that will be set up in the Church vestibule. There you can speak with one of our Stewardship Committee members about opportunities to help in one of our parish ministries. Maybe you could help us occasionally with a parish activity, or join those who visit the sick, or distribute food or do other charitable work. Could God be inviting you to a new challenge?

Bereavement Support Can Help

The bereavement support group at OLQM offers understanding, compassion, and healing for the hurt of losing a loved one. Meetings are the first and third Mondays of the month. Next dates are May 7 and 21, and June 4 and 18, from 7–9 p.m. in our rectory. Facilitated by Commissioned Lay Pastoral Leader, Yorke Mizelle. Call the rectory if interested in attending or, for questions, email ymizelle@nyc.rr.com.

Student Honors Congratulations to the following students from our parish for academic achievements:

2018 Annual Catholic Appeal

ANSWER THE CALL

We want to thank all those generous individuals who are making a pledge to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) during today's in-pew weekend.

- A $1,000 pledge works out to $28.60/week for the next 8 months, or a daily sacrifice of $4.08—which is equal to the cost of one (1) Starbucks Venti Caffe Latte!
- A $250 pledge amounts to $32/month or $8.34/week over 8 months, or a daily sacrifice of $0.98/day—the price of one (1) donut from Dunkin' Donuts.
- A $50 pledge is $6.25/month or 20 cents a day.

If 50 parishioners pledge $1,999 each to the 2018 ACA campaign, we will be over our goal!

We are asking each family to consider making a tax-deductible gift today of any amount you can give, so that we can reach our goal before summer!

THANK YOU.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2018

OLQM Parish Goal: $99,874.00

Raised: $26,769.00

Your Prayer Intentions Delivered to Lourdes

Our trustee Roger Aguinaldo and his wife Ruby will accompany a pilgrimage to Lourdes with the Knights and Dames of the Order of Malta from May 2 to May 9. If you would like them to hand-deliver your prayer intentions to the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes in France (pictured), please fill out one of the cards available in the Church and leave the card in the intention box by the Statue of Mary in our Church.

Roger and Ruby will bring them all to the Grotto where the Immaculate Conception appeared to St. Bernadette.

Living Rosary - Sunday, May 6
After the 1 p.m. Mass in the church plaza

The Living Rosary is a tradition at OLQM during Mary's month of May. Devotion to Mary awakens us to compassion, comforts us, instills in us a desire to pray, and moves us closer to God.

For Your Marriage

Lifelong marriage is still the ideal. What stands in the way? This article is a final excerpt from the USCCB's ForYourMarriage.org website.

Modern Obstacles to a Healthy Marriage

Obstacle #3: We misunderstand the importance of vocation. Vocation is a tough concept for today's younger generations to understand. The idea of a calling—not a job, but a calling—to marriage, priesthood, or religious life is a foreign one to many. When we fail to recognize marriage as a calling, however, we belittle it. Culturally, it becomes a hobby or something nice to do "if you're into that kind of thing." It certainly isn't something you would sacrifice your career for.

But our culture lets young people know that career goals can trump marriage. Travel plans can take precedence. There's no hurry.

The sad result is that when people get married later in life, there is less likelihood that they will meet their spouses when both are ready to make a commitment, and there are fewer marriage-ready men and women in the dating pool even for those who are looking seriously for a spouse.

If marriage is a vocation, that means it's your life's work; it's not a job and not something you do on the side. It's something you do first, and then build the rest of your life around, not something you try to fit in later, once you've saved up enough money and accomplished "more important" things.

The saddest part of cultural obstacles to healthy marriage is that they negatively affect a lot of innocent people who desperately want to answer a call to marriage. They want to find their spouse, get married, begin a lifelong commitment, and practice self-giving love. But our culture sometimes gets in the way.

The good news, though, is that our God is an awesome God. The power of an anti-marriage culture may be great, but God is greater and He works with what we give Him. All of us—married, single, divorced, widowed, dating, or something in between—can pray every day for the grace we need to live out Christ's call to perfection in an imperfect world.

Let's support marriage. Let's pray for each other. Let's encourage each other.
