

Catholic Social Teaching (CST) Committee at OLQM

DEDICATED WEBPAGES

Mission

Our mission is to affirm and protect the inherent dignity of each person as a beloved child of God

- (1) by educating parishioners on Catholic social teaching,
- (2) by promulgating the prayerful study of Catholic social teaching as a primary tool in the forming of our Catholic conscience and identify,
- (3) by advising ways of organizing, advocating and working for social change in ways consistent with human dignity and the social teaching of the Church, and
- (4) by identifying threats to human dignity facing our parish, diocese and Church., and
- (5) by evangelizing by being Salt and Light to our community via Catholic ministries of social change and social witness during a time of increasing agnostic/atheistic secularization of society.

If you are interested in Catholic social teaching, please consider joining our committee. Contact Bishop Sanchez or Fr. Passenant in person, by phone (718-268-6251), or email them at rectoryolqm@aol.com. OR join us in the rectory for our next meeting.

Primary Resources for Catholic Social Teaching

The foundational documents for Catholic social teaching are based on Scripture, Sacred Tradition and the teaching authority of the Magisterium. The Vatican site and the US Conference of Catholic Bishop site have the following:

Bible

The New American Bible revised edition (NABRE), the one used in the liturgy, is available on several sites, including the Vatican and the USCCB websites.

3. Communities of Salt and Light: Reflections on the Social Mission of the Parish

“This statement offers a basic resource for pastors, parish leaders, and all Catholics seeking to strengthen the social ministry of their local community. The bishops’ reflection represents neither major new teaching nor a new national program. Rather, it brings together the principles of our social teaching and local pastoral experience in a framework for vibrant Catholic communities” (USCCB)
