This Week's Reflection from Catholic Social Teaching

Prudent Catholic Social Action

*I, Wisdom, dwell with prudence, and useful knowledge I have.
(Proverbs 8: 12)*

REFLECT: “The lay faithful should act according to the dictates of prudence, the virtue that makes it possible to discern the true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means for achieving it... Prudence makes it possible to make decisions that are consistent, and to make them with realism and a sense of responsibility for the consequences of one’s action. The rather widespread opinion that equates prudence with shrewdness, with utilitarian calculations, with diffidence or with timidity or indecision, is far from the correct understanding of this virtue. It is a characteristic of practical reason and offers assistance in deciding with wisdom and courage the course of action that should be followed, becoming the measure of the other virtues. Prudence affirms the good as a duty and shows in what manner the person should accomplish it. In the final analysis, it is a virtue that requires the mature exercise of thought and responsibility in an objective understanding of a specific situation and in making decisions according to a correct will. Thanks to this virtue, moral principles are applied correctly to particular cases.” (Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church)

“There are three stages which should normally be followed in the reduction of social principles into practice. First, one reviews the concrete situation; secondly, one forms a judgment on it in the light of these same principles; thirdly, one decides what in the circumstances can and should be done to implement these principles. These are the three stages that are usually expressed in the three terms: look, judge, act.” (Mater et Magistra)

LEARN: Listen to Deacon Omar Gutierrez’s “Discerning Hearts” podcast on living out Catholic Social Teaching using Pope Saint John XXIII’s principles of “look, judge, act” (at <https://bit.ly/2L3fyUI>).

Anointing of the Sick

12:05 p.m. Mass on Friday, February 12

With this week’s observance of the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of the Sick, we devote special attention to the sick and those who provide them with care. At Friday’s noon Mass, anointing with the oil of the sick will be offered for those who wish to receive it, including anyone preparing for surgery and those experiencing physical, emotional, and spiritual challenges. Please pray for all the sick, especially those suffering the effects of the coronavirus pandemic.

A Letter of Thanks

The following letter was sent to our parish from Robert Snell of the Juniper Valley Knights of Columbus:

“On behalf of the Juniper Valley Council #14578 of the Knights of Columbus and Sr. Roberta Kerins, SC, of the Resurrection Ascension Food Pantry, a grateful thank you for the overwhelming generosity of the parishioners of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs. Over 70 bags of food were donated and collected [on January 16/17 weekend] and will be distributed to the needy at the RA Food Pantry each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

“In these challenging times the pantries are sometime the last resort for our hungry neighbors. As we approach Lent, we must all reflect on the true meaning of the fast for ourselves, giving up something we possess and have control over, versus those forced into a daily fast, wondering where their next meal is coming from. Once again, a heartfelt thank you for your support.”

“When a poor person dies of hunger, it has not happened because God did not take care of him or her. It has happened because neither you nor I wanted to give that person what he or she needed.” – Mother Teresa

Lenten Calendar Preview

Lent begins in 10 days. This 40-day period of sacrifice and atonement prepares us for Christ's resurrection at Easter. We've had a difficult year adjusting to new ways of living and praying, and we pray that the situation with the pandemic will improve as the year progresses. Until then, we must continue to act prudently. Here is a preview of our Lenten schedule. More information will be shared in coming weeks.

Ash Wednesday (February 17). Ashes will be distributed at our scheduled liturgies only: 8 a.m., 12:05 p.m., 7:30 p.m. (Masses) and 4 p.m. (prayer service). To minimize the risk of spreading disease, our priests will distribute ashes by sprinkling the ashes over the head of each person who comes forward, rather than making a sign of the cross on each person's forehead. This method, while new to us, is within the tradition of the Church and is common practice in some other countries. You can refrain from receiving ashes if you are feeling unwell.

For the six Fridays of Lent at 7:30 p.m., we will pray the Stations of the Cross to reflect on the last moments of Jesus' life. Lenten Sunday Prayer Services (March 14 and March 21) will be at 3 p.m. At all services in church, we will require the wearing of face masks and social distancing, with a limit of three people per pew.

To Have, To Hold, To Honor

Resources for National Marriage Week (February 7 – February 14)

Marriage is a gift, and the annual observance of marriage week is an opportunity for our parish to pray for healthy marriages and the families among us who are the domestic church.

For those of you who wish to build up your good marriages, consider spending dedicated time in prayer and reflection this week by making a seven-day at-home marriage retreat. Use each day to read and meditate on a passage from Scripture and then reflect on how you can renew your commitment “to have, to hold, to honor” your spouse. For example:

To Have: “To have and to hold” is hugely different from “to trap and to devour.” How do I shield or protect my spouse from falling into traps set for them by others or by their own weaknesses?

To Hold: In our relationship as a couple, when have I pounced rather than protected? How can I speak the truth with tenderness and kindness, and not with brutality?

To Honor: During this pandemic, many couples are experiencing new constraints and close confines that have tested the relationship. Have I attacked my spouse verbally, emotionally, or physically? How can my words, my thoughts, and my actions be transformed by God’s grace to better honor my spouse?

Our parish also has members active in Worldwide Marriage Encounter (WWME), which offers virtual weekends and virtual experiences called Restore-Rekindle-Renew (3RE). Visit ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/marriage-encounter for more information about WWME. There, you can also find a link to a resource guide, with Scripture guidance and meditations, for making an At-Home Marriage Retreat for National Marriage Week 2021

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS. The costs of printing our bulletin and hosting our website are subsidized completely by the companies whose ads appear each week at the back of the bulletin. Please patronize their businesses and all our local businesses, especially at this challenging time. Thank you.
