This Week's Reflection from Catholic Social Teaching Why the Incarnation?

*For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and was made man. (Nicene Creed)*

REFLECT: “The Word became flesh for us in order to save us by reconciling us with God, who loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins: the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world, and he was revealed to take away sins: Sick, our nature demanded to be healed; fallen, to be raised up; dead, to rise again....

“The Word became flesh so that thus we might know God’s love: In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. ‘For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.’

“The Word became flesh to be our model of holiness: ‘Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me.’ ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me.’ On the mountain of the Transfiguration, the Father commands: ‘Listen to him!’ Jesus is the model for the Beatitudes and the norm of the new law: ‘Love one another as I have loved you.’ This love implies an effective offering of oneself, after his example.

“The Word became flesh to make us partakers of the divine nature: ‘For this is why the Word became man, and the Son of God became the Son of man: so that man, by entering into communion with the Word and thus receiving divine sonship, might become a son of God. For the Son of God became man so that we might become God. The only-begotten Son of God, wanting to make us sharers in his divinity, assumed our nature, so that he, made man, might make men gods.’” (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

LEARN: To learn more about the Incarnation, and why Jesus became man, see the Catechism of the Catholic Church, starting at paragraph 456 (at <https://bit.ly/3QAvfjy>).

To learn more about legislative issues that impact us as Catholics and how you can express your opinions to our elected officials, we encourage you to sign up for “Action Alerts” from the NY State Catholic Conference: www.nyscatholic.org/nys-catholic-conference-action-center.

SAVE the REVISED DATE!

Sunday August 14th

Parish Potluck Luncheon

Meeting in the air-conditioned rectory basement

Entry fee: $15 or a dish to feed 6 to 8 people pot*luck /noun/ 1. meal to which everyone invited brings food to share; 2. meal for a guest that is prepared from whatever is available; 3. OLQM summer tradition!

We are having major work done on the boiler in the rectory basement, and it is looking less and less likely that the job will be completed before the end of July. So, we are moving the Potluck Luncheon to August.

The Golden Rule of the church potluck is to share abundance and companionship with fellow church members over a meal after worship. The summer potluck luncheon is hosted by OLQM Pastoral Care.

Please save this new date of August 14. Time will be after the 1PM Sunday Mass.

Pledge from the NYS Catholic Bishops

Any woman—regardless of age, religious belief or affiliation, marital status or immigration status—who is pregnant and in need, can come to the Catholic Church and we will give you the services and supports you need to carry your baby to term, regardless of your ability to pay.

Our parish website has links to statements by Diocese of Brooklyn/Queens Bishop Robert Brennan and the New York State Catholic Bishops on the Supreme Court decision in Dobbs v. Jackson. We encourage you to read them. Please speak with our priests if you have questions about how the church and our parish will fulfill this pledge.

LIVESTREAM @ OLQM: We currently livestream one Sunday Mass weekly at 11:15AM Mass for the benefit of the homebound and the sick who are unable to be in church in person. If you miss a livestream broadcast, the entirety of the Sunday Mass is available on demand at ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/webcast using the “past livestreams” link.

You also obtain certain benefits related to scheduling sacraments, obtaining certificates, meeting eligibility to become a sponsor/godparent, and getting contribution statements for taxes. Registration can be completed easily online at:

ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/parish-registration

On your smartphone, use the QR code on the front of the bulletin to find our registration page. The same QR code is displayed on the glass windows in the church vestibule and on the piano at the front of the church. You can also register in-person by visiting the rectory during business hours.
