From Bishop Sanchez: Some Thoughts on Migrants and Refugees

I suspect that all of us are concerned about the suffering experienced by migrants and refugees throughout the world. Pope Francis has tellingly brought our attention to this situation in a variety of ways. Our own Bishop DiMarzio has spent a large part of his priestly and episcopal ministry in analyzing and working to alleviate the crisis of migration. Cardinal Dolan recently reported that he had visited in New York a residence for migrant children who have been separated from their families. Pope Francis in February 2016 celebrated Mass at the U.S.-Mexico border, where he deemed forced migration a "humanitarian crisis."

I suspect that we all have asked ourselves what can we do to be part of a resolution of this crisis. I encourage all of us, first of all, to keep in our prayers the needs of migrants who struggle with a wide range of difficulties.

Message from Bishop Sanchez cont'd

Locally, I have talked briefly with Bishop DiMarzio and the Very Rev. Patrick Keating, who is CEO and executive director of the Catholic Migration Services. Within our own Diocese of Brooklyn and Queens, they have informed me that our diocesan agencies have been unable to resettle refugee families in this area because of the high cost of living here. Some migrant children who were forcibly separated from their parents have been housed in a former convent in the Bronx.

In our diocese, lawyers who work with migrant families and/or children do offer representation to help families with the legal issues that inevitably arise in these matters. The Catholic Migration Services (CMS) website in our diocese invites individuals with specific skills to assist voluntarily the CMS staff in aiding migrants. To access this site, go to catholicmigration.org and click on the drop-down link labeled “Get Involved.” There is also a link labeled “Donate.” Contributions will enable Catholic Migration Services to continue its hands-on work.

On a national level, I encourage you to join the Justice for Immigrants Campaign and become part of a network of Catholic institutions and individuals interested in comprehensive immigration reform. At justiceforimmigrants.org you will find a resource kit from the U.S. Bishops concerning unaccompanied migrant children as well as other important resources.

Thank you for your prayers and sacrifices. May we draw from our rich tradition of Catholic and American values and work for an equitable solution of these complex issues.

VOCATIONS NEWS:
Sister Maria Veritas Marks, OP

We rejoice with our parishioners, Fred and Sylvia Marks, as they celebrate the Perpetual Profession of their daughter, Sister Maria Veritas Marks, OP, as a Dominican Sister of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist. The Profession will take place at Christ the King Church in Ann Arbor, MI, on July 25. Sister Maria Veritas has spoken of the huge role that Our Lady Queen of Martyrs played in her vocation throughout her formative years. On our website is a beautiful article (originally appearing in The Michigan Catholic) that she wrote concerning our parish Patroness, Our Lady Queen of Martyrs.

Please remember Sister Maria in your prayers. May God continue to fill her with His grace!

Fathers Passenant, Antonín, and Cunningham

MAGNIFICAT DAY:
OCTOBER 6 AT KINGS THEATRE, BROOKLYN

As part of the Magnificat’s 25th Jubilee Celebration, the Diocese of Brooklyn is hosting the Magnificat Day of Thanksgiving on Saturday, October 6. This extraordinary spiritual experience will feature four acclaimed Catholic preachers—Fr. Peter John Cameron, OP; Bishop Robert Barron; Dr. Scott Hahn; and Seán Cardinal O’Malley, OFM, CAP—plus a symphonic meditation performed by orchestra and choir. Relics of the Little Flower, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, will be available for veneration all day.

Call or email our rectory ASAP and leave your name and number if interested. There may be an opportunity for a group rate—if we register early. All previous Magnificat Days have sold out two months in advance!
