OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Parish is a vibrant Catholic Faith Community in Forest Hills, New York. We are one parish family seeking to be the welcoming and warm presence of Jesus Christ to the diverse peoples of the area. Our parish life is centered on celebrating the Holy Eucharist, proclaiming and teaching God's Word, faith formation through our school and religious education programs, and ministering to and serving the pastoral needs of the faithful. In thanksgiving to God for all that has been, for all that we are, and for all that we will be, we support vocations and lay leadership development, strengthening stewardship, and fulfilling the mission of the New Evangelization to bring Christ into the world.

July 27 to August 4: St. John Vianney Novena

Golden Jubilarian Father Salvatore Amato, Celebrant 5 p.m. Mass on July 27

Newly Ordained Father JohnPaul Obiaeri, Celebrant 11:15 a.m. Mass on August 4

July 28 through August 3, Novena Recited at the 12:05 p.m. Mass

Every year we ask for the intercession of the patron saint of parish priests, St. John Vianney, to bless our diocese with good parish priests. To introduce the 2019 novena on Sunday, July 27, Fr. Salvatore Amato, pastor emeritus of Resurrection-Ascension Parish (Rego Park), will celebrate the 5 p.m. with us. Fr. Amato marks his 50th anniversary as a priest this year. A Brooklyn native, he has served at Resurrection-Ascension since 1996; he was appointed administrator there in 2011 before being named pastor in 2013. Previously he served as an assistant priest at parishes throughout Brooklyn and Queens, including St. Bernadette, Dyker Heights (1989–96); St. Helen, Howard Beach (1983–86); St. Andrew Avellino in Flushing (1977–83), and Incarnation in Queens Village (1969–77).

Father Amato

On Sunday, August 4, the feast day of St. John Vianney, our 11:15 a.m. Sunday Mass will be celebrated by Fr. JohnPaul Obiaeri, who was ordained by Bishop DiMarzio on June 5. Fr. Obiaeri grew up in Nigeria in a region that is heavily Catholic, so the Church was always a strong influence for him. After high school he started studies in the seminary but quit to explore other avenues. He served in the national youth service after college and worked in the hotel business. Eventually, he decided to come to New York to study at the Jesuit university, Fordham. He found a Nigerian community of worshipers at St. Clement Pope in Jamaica and confided his thoughts about the priesthood to the parish priest there, who counseled him to call the diocesan vocation office. Fr. Obiaeri will offer first blessings in the Mary garden after Mass and the conclusion of the St. John Vianney Novena.

Father JohnPaul

We also call on all of you to lend spiritual help and encouragement to the 2019–20 class of seminarians in our diocese by using the prayer sign-up sheet, posted by the sacristy, and to make one of the seminarians your prayer intention for this period.

FAITH & GOOD WORKS is the theme of this year's diocesan appeal to support the daily work of the Catholic church in Brooklyn and Queens. It's work that no one parish can accomplish alone. Catholic Charities; Hospital, College, and Prison Chaplains; Diocesan Vocations Office; Catholic Migration Services; Office of Faith Formation; Futures in Education Scholarship Foundation—all these programs rely on your Annual Catholic Appeal support. Making a gift is as easy as . . .

1. Using one of the special Annual Catholic Appeal gift envelopes you'll find near the church doors
2. Making a pledge from your phone by texting "ACA" to 917-336-1255
3. Donating online at the Catholic Foundation portal: www.catholicfoundationbq.org/annual-catholic-appeal

2019 PARISH PARTICIPATION LEVEL

As of July 15, a total of 342 individuals/families in our parish have made an Annual Catholic Appeal pledge. That is 20% fewer pledges than last year when 428 parishioners gave. Help us meet or beat that goal in participation level. If you have not yet made a gift, please consider acting today. We need everyone's involvement. Thank you.
