This Week's Reflection from Catholic Social Teaching

Summer with the Saints: The Intercession of the Saints

Do not weep, for I shall be more useful to you after my death, and I shall help you then more effectively than during my life. (St. Dominic, dying, to his brothers)

REFLECT: “All who are in Christ, having His Spirit, form one Church and cleave together in Him. Therefore, the union of the wayfarers with the brethren who have gone to sleep in the peace of Christ is not in the least weakened or interrupted, but on the contrary, according to the perpetual faith of the Church, is strengthened by communication of spiritual goods. For by reason of the fact that those in heaven are more closely united with Christ, they establish the whole Church more firmly in holiness, lend nobility to the worship which the Church offers to God here on earth and in many ways contribute to its greater edification. For after they have been received into their heavenly home and are present to the Lord, through Him and with Him and in Him they do not cease to intercede with the Father for us, showing forth the merits which they won on earth through the one Mediator between God and man, serving God in all things...

“Just as Christian communion among wayfarers brings us closer to Christ, so our companionship with the saints joins us to Christ, from Whom as from its Fountain and Head issues every grace and the very life of the people of God. It is supremely fitting, therefore, that we love those friends and coheirs of Jesus Christ, who are also our brothers and extraordinary benefactors, that we render due thanks to God for them and suppliantly invoke them and have recourse to their prayers, their power and help in obtaining benefits from God through His Son, Jesus Christ, who is our Redeemer and Savior.” (Lumen Gentium)

ACT: Befriend a saint. Since God has given saints the privilege of being our advocates in prayer, learn more about a saint who appeals to you, and then commit to meeting your saint regularly in prayer.

LEARN: Listen to the Discerning Hearts podcast, “Personal Plan for Holiness: The Communion of Saints,” at <https://bit.ly/3ce1DpG>.
