This Week's Reflection

from Catholic Teaching

Contrition

"My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a contrite, humbled heart, O God, you will not scorn." (Psalm 51:19)

REFLECT: In his Transformation in Christ, Hildebrand echoes the Catechism in stating that the "initial step of the soul's meeting with God bears the mark of contrition." This comes from an encounter with the love of Christ, in which we recognize his total gift of self for us, while also recognizing our unworthiness. Our unworthiness does not simply consist in the fact that we were creatures before the Creator; even saints know this. As sinners, our unworthiness reflects the fact that we intentionally turned away from God, that we exercised our intellectual foolishness, our perverse willfulness, our ingratitude. Now, cognizant of this, we can only cry out with St. Peter, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord" (Luke 5:8).

The wonder of contrition is that God will have none of this. The Catechism reminds us that this stirring of conscience, no matter how painful, is itself a "gift of God, a prompting of the Holy Spirit" (CCC 1453). Like the father of the prodigal son, our Father stands waiting for us. As the catechism reminds us, he thirsts for our return (CCC 2560). It is no small wonder then that this father, seeing his son approach, from "a long way off...ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him" and brought him back into the family with the dignity of a son (Luke 15).

Hildebrand reminds us that "contrition involves our surrender to God's mercy. In true Christian penitence, there is always present a positive relation to God, grafted on the negation of sin. It forms in us an attitude of self-effacement before God, and of surrender to Him.... That turning away from sin, which is implicit in penitence, also means, therefore, a return toward God: a flight toward the refuge which is God's mercy."

ACT: Surrender to God this Lent. Go to confession frequently.

LEARN: Read Dietrich Von Hildebrand's Transformation in Christ, available at your favorite Catholic bookstore. Read what the Catechism has to say about contrition starting with paragraph 1451, at <http://tinyurl.com/4kfnh7m5>.

Diocesan Lenten Pilgrimage Continues through March 27

The Diocese of Brooklyn and Queens Lenten Pilgrimage is visiting a different church each day during Lent. One will reap the spiritual benefits of visiting the sacred places located in the Holy Land. For the list of station churches and the days and times each church is hosting its liturgical events, visit Lent.DioceseofBrooklyn.org. You can also download the app from Google Play or the Apple App Store.

living Lent through

PRAYER

ALMSGIVING

Please pray for our Elect, who will receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. Pray for them, their sponsors, and families, and give thanks to God for the growth in our faith community.

Please also refrain from leaving flowers in the church and on the altars during this solemn season of Lent, a time for prayerful remembrance of the Passion of Jesus Christ. The Fourth Sunday of Lent, called "Laetare Sunday" (Rejoice), is the one day during Lent that flowers will appear on the altar, as we take a moment to look forward, with hope, to Easter.

RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

If you are 18 years of age or older and interested in becoming Catholic or need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation, RCIA is the answer to your prayers. RCIA guides you through the process of discernment, prayer, and education. Contact olqmrca@gmail.com or call 718-268-6251, ext. 27, and leave a message (including a callback number). All emails and calls will receive a response.

Compassionate Bereavement Support Is Available

The parish bereavement group is a welcoming community of individuals who have faced loss and help one another to better deal with grief. They meet monthly, usually on the third or fourth Monday, at 6:45 p.m. in the rectory basement meeting room. Upcoming sessions are March 25, April 22, May 20, and June 17. For inquiries or additional information, please contact the bereavement group facilitator Mike Acquilano at bereave@olqmchurch.org.
