This Week's Reflection from Catholic Teaching

The Meaning of Faithful Citizenship

The New York State Catholic Conference recently shared on Facebook the message, "Respect all voices. The Catholic Church will never tell you who to vote for." What the Church does want faithful Catholics to do is to be mindful of Catholic social and moral teachings when making your personal electoral choices.

For several months, this column has reminded us of the major principles of Catholic social teaching: (1) the dignity of the human person, (2) subsidiarity, (3) the common good, and (4) solidarity. These principles transcend political ideologies and reflect the Church's commitment to universal ethical values.

Human life is sacred, and the dignity of every human person is the foundation of a moral society. The Church calls for the protection of human life at all stages and opposes abortion, assisted suicide, racism, the denigration of others, and all practices that threaten this dignity. The Church believes in the importance of family, based on marriage between a man and a woman, as the fundamental unit of society.

Subsidiarity is the idea that larger institutions should not overwhelm smaller ones but should support them when necessary. This principle is relevant to the Catholic belief in religious freedom and parental rights. The common good is rooted in social conditions that allow people to flourish: protecting human rights, meeting basic needs, and ensuring that economic systems serve people, not the other way around.

Solidarity is the recognition that we are one human family, regardless of national, racial, ethnic, economic, or ideological differences. This principle calls for addressing global issues like poverty and disease, welcoming immigrants, and promoting peace and justice. The Church believes that a society's moral test is how it treats its most vulnerable members.

LEARN: Examine the resources on our church website at ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/faithfulcitizenship. The Catholic Social Teaching 101 videos are easy to watch and may prompt you to thoughtfully consider multiple aspects of Catholic social teaching. The "Faithful Citizenship" documents will help you comprehend the realm of possibilities that faithful Catholics may encounter in a candidate or in ballot initiatives.

ACT: Election Day is Tuesday. Exercise your right to vote as a civic duty. Be mindful of Church teachings; "grow in understanding" of the teachings, as Pope Francis urges; and examine your personal moral convictions. Recall the supreme obligations to love God and to love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:36-39).

BE AN INFORMED CITIZEN: To learn more about legislative issues that affect us as Catholics and how you can express your opinions to our elected officials, we encourage you to sign up for "Action Alerts" from the NY State Catholic Conference. ### LIVESTREAM MASS

Sundays @ 11:15AM. The Mass is available in its entirety on demand using the "past livestreams" link at ourladyqueenofmartyrs.org/webcast

November Remembrances

All during November, we are remembering the souls of our faithful departed brothers and sisters who we buried here during the last five years through a reading of their names, in alphabetical order, at the Masses.

If you wish to remember your loved ones in an individual way with a gift of a memorial candle at the Sacred Heart of Jesus altar. Contact Mr. Dennis Francis Portelli, Pastoral Care Administrator, 718-268-6251, and he will be pleased to assist you.

Bereavement Support Is Available

The parish bereavement group is a welcoming community of individuals who have faced loss and help one another to better deal with grief. They meet monthly (third or fourth Monday) in the rectory basement meeting room. With the holidays approaching, this time of year can be challenging. The support group will be here for you, meeting on Nov 18 and Dec 16. All meetings start at 6:45 p.m. Contact: group facilitator Mike Acquilano at bereave@olqmchurch.org.

CHRISTMAS MEMORIALS

Order forms are available near the church entrances for Christmas memorial wreaths, trees and poinsettia plants. Make your request early. Advent begins December 1.

Recently at OLQM

Celebrating 24 years of fellowship and friendship!

The Single Adults Group marked this special anniversary together with a Saturday afternoon gathering on October 26. Bishop Sanchez and Father Antonin joined them to wish them many more happy get-togethers and to thank them all for their continuing parish support. Stay tuned for an announcement about the group's Christmas Cheer party, a yearly favorite!

God Loves a Cheerful Giver (2 Corinthians 9: 7)

Participate in Our Clothing, Food, and Toy Drives

It's that time of year when we come together to support those in need.

St Vincent de Paul Clothing Donations Truck

The truck makes its last visit of the year next Sunday only, November 10. It will be stationed in front of the church on Ascan Avenue from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. to accept drop-offs of gently used clothing. Be sure the items you give are clean and in good, wearable condition.

Annual Thanksgiving Canned Food Drive

We will collect bags of canned and nonperishable foods (e.g., vegetables, beans, fish) at the Sunday Masses on November 16/17 weekend and again at the 9 a.m. Thanksgiving Day Mass on November 28. All food donated will be given to our sister parishes in Queens that operate food pantries for the community. We'll have a list of suggested items next time.

Christmas Giving Tree Toy Drive

It seems to arrive earlier and earlier each year, but the tree needs to go up soon so that Catholic Charities can be ready with gifts to distribute in time for Christmas. You will have two weekends (starting November 16/17) to take a gift tag from the tree in church and to shop for a brand-new, age-appropriate present for that boy or girl. Then the next two weekends are for returning unwrapped gifts for children or gift cards for teens. Catholic Charities will pick up the gifts donated by OLQM parishioners on December 17 and send them to Santa's Toy Shop in Queens, which this year is St. Gabriel's parish in Elmhurst. Parents and guardians from all over the diocese who present a birth certificate for each child can then go "shopping" for a present for their children. More details to follow.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

OCIA (formerly RCIA) is a program for adults age 18 or older who want to join the Catholic Church or complete their Sacraments. OCIA guides you through the process of discernment, prayer, and education. To join our program, contact olqmrcia@gmail.com or call 718-268-6251, ext. 27, and leave a message (including a callback number). All emails and calls will receive a response.

November 16th through December 1st

Sacred Music Society Sweepstakes

This twice-a-year fundraiser supports the liturgies and concerts presented by the Sacred Music Society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs. Choir members will be selling tickets in the church vestibule after Sunday Masses on the weekends of November 16/17, November 23/24, and November 30/December 1. You should plan to act fast because only 100 sweepstakes tickets at $50 each will be sold (offering a high chance of winning!). The drawing will be after the 1 p.m. Mass on Sunday, December 1, for a cash prize of $1,000.
