This Week's Reflection from Catholic Social Teaching The Eucharist and Catechesis

"Now when they hear [the good news], they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, 'What are we to do, my brothers?'" (Acts 2:37)

REFLECT: "In the prologue to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we read that most important in the teaching of Christian doctrine is that the love of our Lord must always be made accessible, so that anyone can see that all the works of perfect Christian virtue spring from love... It's been clear in the Church's vision for quite some time that catechesis must be carried out in ways that lead people to actually know Jesus and become his disciples.... The Gospel Message is not just a concept, but is a person....

"John tells us: 'for God so loved the world that He gave his only son....' The gift of the Son is the most extraordinary gift ever given in the history of the world. And, in the Eucharist, He has made possible the intimate communion that is the very objective of catechesis.... 'This is my body, given for you' (Luke 22:19). These words encapsulate so well the proposal which Jesus makes to each of us. He wishes to make a gift of himself, to give himself totally and without reservation.... This is an invitation into a life of profound love, of mystery, and of deep challenge and adventure.

"But notice how both the proclamation of the Gospel Message in catechesis and the giving of this life of Eucharistic communion with God are proposals. And, as with any proposal ... a response is always required. Being a disciple is always a choice. To receive the Eucharist means that we are giving our 'yes' to God's gift of Himself.... There is also a second 'yes' inherent to receiving the Eucharist ... a 'yes' to truly think and see and live like a disciple of Jesus.... To God who gives himself so profoundly, I am invited to give myself in return. (James Pauley, USCCB)

Help Us Keep the Church Clean

You may be starting to get card samples and solicitations for Christmas and the holidays in the mail. Please DO NOT leave cards or prayer books or other religious material that you receive in your personal mail in the church or in the pamphlet stands for the purpose of sharing them, because our church narthex quickly gets cluttered. If these items are unwanted by you, they can be respectfully disposed of at home with your other unwanted mail. Thank you for complying so that we can keep the church clean and presentable for everyone who attends services.

Attention All Parish Groups!

Rectory Meeting Room Repairs

The rectory basement meeting room is unavailable until the end of October while extensive renovations are underway. An alternative meeting site is set up in the rectory with seating to accommodate groups needing space while the main room is out of commission. Call the rectory during business hours if you have questions.

Single Adults Group Meetup

Instead of a Zoom meeting this month, we are planning a picnic in the park on Greenway Terrace in Forest Hills Gardens on Saturday, September 24 at 1 p.m. The rain date will be Sunday, September 25. Bring your own blankets, chairs, lunch and beverages, and we will spread out on the grass. Since plans may change, please RSVP by September 21 to either dmtdemaria@hotmail.com or our phone hotline at 718-361-3201 if you wish to join us. Directions will also be provided.

Religious Education Classes Begin Wednesday. Last Call to Register.

Those wanting to further their children's faith formation must complete our online form to register or re-register for classes, which begin Wednesday, September 21. ## Would you like to get more out of the Sunday Readings?

THROUGH THE WORD is a Catholic bible study that draws from the canon of Scripture, Sacred Tradition, and the teachings of the Fathers and Doctors of the Church to bring Christ in the word to you. The group meets online on Monday evenings and has just begun a new season that is a year-long study on "Sunday Reading Reflections." Each weekly meeting explores readings from the Sunday Mass. On Tuesday mornings following the study, participants receive the Zoom recording of the study by email; a brief "midweek reflection" is emailed sometime on Wednesdays. All are welcome and encouraged to invite others to the study! If you sign into Zoom a bit earlier than the 7 p.m. start time on Mondays, Joe will lead everyone in praying and meditating on two decades of the rosary beginning at 6:40 p.m. To request to join, email josephterry@gmail.com.

Parish Prayer

O glorious Queen of Martyrs, whose Immaculate Heart, in the Passion of your Son, was cruelly pierced by the sword foretold by the holy and aged Simeon; obtain for my heart true courage and holy patience to bear well the tribulations and trials of this life.
