This Week's Reflection from Catholic Social Teaching

Feast of the Archangels, September 29

Are they [the angels] not all ministering spirits sent to serve, for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation? (Hebrews 1:14)

REFLECT: “With their whole beings the angels are servants and messengers of God. Because they ‘always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven’ they are the ‘mighty ones who do his word, hearkening to the voice of his word.’” (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

“You should be aware that the word ‘angel’ denotes a function rather than a nature. Those holy spirits of heaven have indeed always been spirits. They can only be called angels when they deliver some message. Moreover, those who deliver messages of lesser importance are called angels; and those who proclaim messages of supreme importance are called archangels. And so it was that not merely an angel but the archangel Gabriel was sent to the Virgin Mary. It was only fitting that the highest angel should come to announce the greatest of all messages.

“Some angels are given proper names to denote the service they are empowered to perform.... Thus, Michael means ‘Who is like God’; Gabriel is ‘The Strength of God’; and Raphael is ‘God’s Remedy.’... Whenever some act of wondrous power must be performed, Michael is sent, so that his action and his name may make it clear that no one can do what God does by his superior power.... So too Gabriel, who is called God’s strength, was sent to Mary. He came to announce the One who appeared as a humble man to quell the cosmic powers. Thus God’s strength announced the coming of the Lord of the heavenly powers, mighty in battle. Raphael means, as I have said, God’s remedy, for when he touched Tobit’s eyes in order to cure him, he banished the darkness of his blindness. Thus, since he is to heal, he is rightly called God’s remedy.” (St. Gregory the Great, homily, from the office of September 29).

ACT: Pray the Litany of the Angels (<https://bit.ly/3AjbN3B>) or the Chaplet of St Michael (<https://bit.ly/2jZhfpa>).

LEARN: To learn more about the angels, read the Catechism starting at paragraph 328 (<https://bit.ly/3KdW9v3>). For information on “fostering an intimate collaboration with the holy angels for the glorification of God and for the sanctification (salvation) of souls, see Opus Sanctorum Angelorum, at <https://bit.ly/3pHDILi>.

Help Us Keep the Church Clean

You may be starting to get card samples and solicitations for Christmas and the holidays in the mail. Please DO NOT leave cards or prayer books or other religious material that you receive in your personal mail in the church or in the pamphlet stands for the purpose of sharing them, because our church narthex quickly gets cluttered. If these items are unwanted by you, they can be respectfully disposed of at home with your other unwanted mail. Thank you for complying so that we can keep the church clean and presentable for everyone who attends services.

Rectory Meeting Room Repairs

A reminder to all parish groups: The rectory basement meeting room is unavailable until the end of October while extensive renovations are underway. An alternative meeting site is set up in the rectory with seating to accommodate groups needing space while the main room is out of commission. Call the rectory during business hours if you have questions.

Would you like to get more out of the Sunday Readings?

THROUGH THE WORD is a Catholic bible study that draws from the canon of Scripture, Sacred Tradition, and the teachings of the Fathers and Doctors of the Church to bring Christ in the word to you. Our parish group meets online on Monday evenings and has just begun a new season that is a year-long study on “Sunday Reading Reflections.” Each weekly meeting explores readings from the Sunday Mass. On Tuesday mornings following the study, participants receive the Zoom recording of the study by email; a brief “midweek reflection” is emailed sometime on Wednesdays. All are welcome and encouraged to invite others to the study! If you sign into Zoom a bit earlier than the 7 p.m. start time on Mondays, Joe will lead everyone in praying and meditating on two decades of the rosary beginning at 6:40 p.m. To request to join, email JosephTerry@gmail.com.
